

Congregational Declaration Regarding the Ministry Policy Actions Approved at the 2009 ELCA Churchwide Assembly

REGARDING MARRIAGE

1. We affirm that “marriage and the family [are] foundational structures that support human community.”
2. We affirm that “marriage is a covenant of mutual promises, commitment, and hope authorized legally by the state and blessed by God.”
3. We affirm “marriage as a covenant between a man and a woman....” (Mark 10:6-9; Genesis 1:27, 2:23-24).
4. We affirm that, “despite its awareness of the presence of sin and failure in marriage, the Christian tradition places great emphasis on the value of marriage for a husband and wife.”¹
5. Therefore,
 - we commend the institution of marriage to our members and friends;
 - we encourage child-bearing and adoption within the context of marriage;
 - we expect engaged couples to make use of the Means of Grace, pastoral care, counseling, prayer, and other ways of preparing themselves for marriage;
 - we beseech married couples encountering difficulties in their relationship to receive pastoral care and counseling to preserve their marriages;
 - we commit ourselves to strengthening marriages and families in our preaching, teaching and other faith formation activities; and
 - we understand that the home/family is a primary arena for Christian faith formation for our children.

REGARDING GAY AND LESBIAN PERSONS AND THEIR FAMILIES

1. We “welcome, care for, and support” gay and lesbian persons and their families who wish to participate in the life of our congregation.
2. We offer compassionate counsel and pastoral care to those who are same-gender in their orientation, as well as to those who “seek counsel about their sexual self-understanding.”
3. We oppose “all forms of verbal or physical harassment and assault based on sexual orientation.”¹
